

The background is a light grey, textured surface with scattered small, colorful speckles in shades of orange, red, and yellow. On the left, a dark blue crescent moon is depicted. A man wearing a blue cap and overalls sits on the inner curve of the moon, with a woman in a dark top and red skirt sitting on his lap. On the right, a large, stylized globe of the Earth is shown, with green and yellow landmasses and a greyish-blue ocean. The globe is partially cut off by the right edge of the frame.

Anywhere, Anywhere.

Written by Rose Marie Anderson
Illustrated by Jessica Ann Marie Wallace

Dedicated to my best friend and husband, Michael.

I wouldn't want to go ANYWHERE without you.

If I could be Anywhere and Anywhere I could be,

I would go to Antarctica to see what I could see.

I would find out where the penguins are
and what the penguins do.

I would row my boat across the water and take a picture just for you.

If I could be Anywhere and Anywhere I could be,

I would go to Beijing China to see what I could see.

After seeing all the beautiful colors in the sparkling city lights,

I would travel to The Great Wall of China
to walk its amazing sites.

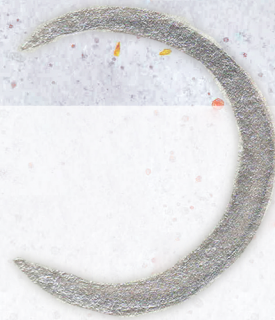

If I could be Anywhere and Anywhere I could be,

I would go to Paris France to see what I could see.

I would ride my bike on cobblestone roads
to see all the museums and sites.

My favorite by far would be the Eiffel tower glowing in tiny bright lights.

Anywhere, Anywhere is a book for all ages who dream of going to wonderful places. You get to go to England, Japan, Scotland, France, China, Australia, and some places in America too! On your journey in Anywhere, Anywhere you will find that the most important thing is not where you go, it's who you share your experience with.

Dottie
Loni

Copyright © 2019 Rose Anderson
Dottie Loni Publishing
www.dottieloni.com
ISBN: 978-1-950535-01-9

