

Mr. B

By: Jessica Wallace

This is my teacher, Mr. B.

And he has something to share with me!

He's someone that cares about you, no matter what you say or do.

He starts each day
at the school's front door, with colored notes that you just can't ignore.

I love getting these notes of Gods love as
Mr. B sends us on our way.

They truly cheer me up and brighten my day.

Dear Mr. B

We want to thank you deeply for all your years of care, loyalty, and kindness. Those tiny pieces of paper were actually seeds that God had you plant. And they have now grown beyond measure.

You've changed us all for the better!

Signed,

Your Kids

Mr. B (Charlie Brown) has an incredible story of loyalty, love, and faith. His journey at Bellevue Christian School started when he moved his family from Oregon to Bellevue, Washington to help grow and support a faith centered school. Mr. B taught Art, World Geography, Typing, Photography, Yearbook, and more. He constantly opened up his home for foreign exchange students as well. He honestly filled in wherever there was a need. He brought Christianity into all his subjects, relationships, and friendships. He saw the need for the Lord's word and through his desire to grow his community. He started handing out devotions to each student in the mornings. After working at BCS for 54 years, he retired in 2017. However, his retirement didn't stop him from standing at the school's front door every morning handing out his devotions. When Covid set in, he physically wasn't able to do it anymore. So he started individually texting his devotions out to his students and the BCS community instead. This man left a legacy and is truly an example of a hard worker. I think we can all agree that the Lord's words to Mr. Brown will be "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Thank you Mr. B - From all your kids at BCS.

Mr B. Is a story inspired by true events. This story reminds us all of how a small act of kindness can change someone's life for the better. This story is a thank-you note to a teacher that raised the bar for encouragement and kindness to his students. We hope it encourages you to be a little more like Mr.B.
